

"It was a real heartbreaker. We clubbed them the first half and they came back to beat us. I was thinking surely there was something I could have done to change it around. If I was younger, I'd have thought, 'Well, next year I'll do something to make myself better, to beat them.' But since I was a senior I couldn't think that. We went out and played our hearts out and didn't win."

—Scott Hesse